Description

A good quality mahogany carver chair dating from the early 19th century. It stands on turned front legs with rear sabre legs and it has large scrolling arms. The horsehair stuffed seat has been covered in a good quality green leather-type material which makes the chair very suitable to use as a desk chair. The chair is in good condition for its age and has a lovely rich patina. There are signs of age and use, a few small chips, knocks and marks but no major damages. It has been well looked after and maintained over the years and as such has a few good old repairs but nothing detrimental and the chair is strong and sturdy. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
