

SA845887

Enormous (2.7kg) Solid Silver Flagon of The Hicks Family - London 1864

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA845887*Date of manufacture: Victorian

Dimensions

Height = 29 cm (11.4")

Width = 33.5 cm (13.2")

Depth = 33.5 cm (13.2")

Description

Please do contact us at info@artisanantiques.net for further details. Further details in our book; (Please refer to the link below for the e-book). https://issuu.com/artisanantiques/docs/flagon_word_mac_issue A solid silver flagon of The Hicks family presented to Athelstan Braxton Hicks (19th June 1854 – 17th May 1902). Inscription: "A goblet of Burgundy fill fill for me. Give those, who prefer it Champagne: But whatever the wine a bumper must be, If we ne'er drink a bumper again. Now, Now when the cares of the day are thrown by, and all man's best feelings possess him, and the soul lights her beacon of truth in the eye. Here's a health to the Queen, God bless her! God bless her! God bless her! Here's a health to the Queen. God bless her!" June 10th, 1885 Maker: Thomas Smily (1858-1883) Assay Office/Year Made: London, 1864 Construction: Sterling Silver (925) Diameter: 33.5cm Height: 29cm Weight: 2.7KG Capacity: 4.5 Litres Upon purchase, a physical copy of the book will also be included in the package. CONDITION Excellent Condition - The flagon is in excellent antique condition with no issues. Please refer to the photographs to examine th...

Seller Details

Artisan Antiques

London United Kingdom

Tel: 07578 761640

International Tel: +44 7578 761640