Description

We are delighted to offer this Magnificent solid silver gilt set of six fruit/dessert knives and forks. The set was made by silversmith Aaron Hadfield of Sheffield in 1839. All the cutlery is meticulously crafted and decorated with a 'Queens Pattern' design. In addition to the exquisite and intricate design on each of the pieces, the entire set presents a rich silver-gilt gold colour that conveys a sense of importance and indulgent opulence. Each piece is fully hallmarked on the knife/fork and their respective handles. The set is an excellent addition to any collection of silverware ideal for display on a dining table or as an indulging manner to enjoy one's fruits and sweets. SIZE Knife Length: 205mm (8.07inch) - approx weight 56g (2.0oz) Fork Length: 175mm (6.69inch) - approx weight 38g (1.4oz) Total Set Weight: 570 grams (20.1oz) CONDITION Good Condition - The set is in good condition considering its antique nature with no major damage or issues.
