Description

Totally authentic and wonderfully stylish 1930's Art Deco decanter set. Comprises a large decanter and six matching glasses. This fabulous set exudes quality as soon as you hold each piece, each being deceptively heavy and wonderfully detailed. The condition is almost mint, in fact there's no damage to mentioned here it's free from cracks, chips of any size even flea bites, it's a real rarity and perhaps indicates it's been lovely displayed and looked after for the past 90 plus years because even the enamelling shows minimal signs of it's age. We've taken close up pictures so you can see for yourself. Originates from Prague, Czech republic. The glasses are perfect size for shots, liquors etc and in a fabulous conical shape with enamel decoration. The decanter itself has the iconic fan, sunburst design often used in this era. This set is a true delight, you definitely won't be disappointed. Decanter is Depth 9 cm Height 20.5 cm Width 15 cm - Glasses height 6 cm Diameter 6 cm For 90 odd years of age we think it's in great condition and a real asset to any deco barware collection.
