Description

Victorian Mahogany Tilt-Top Table. A stunningly carved and substantial tilt top mahogany table. We bring to you this fine example of an early Victorian solid Mahogany tilt top oval table believed to be made between C1850 - 1860. This lovely table is complete with its original French polished finish throughout with a lightly faded original colour, lots of patina, charm and character. This tilt top table is made from all solid Mahogany featuring a beautifully shaped and fluted large base going to 4 proportionate fluted and scroll carved legs which stand on its original solid polished brass castors on white porcelain wheels. This table has a small overall form yet is versatile from having an oval-shaped top managing to comfortably seat 4 to 6 people and be used as a dining room or breakfast table. Already not taking up too much room because of this shape, the top tilts up-right for storage and is removable via 3 large wing bolts with polished brass heads. One large centre screw is unthreaded to tilt the top upright, the table also features an extra wooden support for the table when it is tilted so it cannot fall like many other tilt tops would. This table is in f...
