Description

For your consideration is this very charming Art Deco 8 day clock, originating from France and dating to the late 20's early 30's. The tri coloured marble casing is supported on four spelter legs and is an unusual and very appealing shape. The gold tone dial has elongated stretched numerals, there is a markers name but has faded with time and is no longer legible. To the side sits a young scantily clad young woman made from spelter and appears to be leaning in to listen to two birds that sit next to her. The whole piece is in very good condition, no nibbles to the marble and the dial is clean and relatively unmarked. We've had the 8 day movement fully serviced by fully qualified horologist, chiming on the hours. FREE UK MAINLAND DELIVERY , INTERNATIONAL £65
