Description

A George II figured walnut knee-hole desk. With a very good colour and original patina, this desk also retains its original handles, lock and feet. A rather unusual feature is the drawer formation, with 4 graduated drawers each side of the knee hole rather than the usual 3. The top is quartered and banded and the whole is in lovely condition, a real collectors piece. 800mm high, 920mm wide and 480mm deep. English. Circa 1740.
