Description

A charming country oak side table dating from the 18th century. It has a planked overhanging top and stands on baluster turned legs with square stretchers. It has a single drawer with its original brass swan neck handles. It is in good condition with a lovely rich patina and is strong and sturdy. There are signs of age and use, some surface marks, old splits and some historic repairs but nothing detrimental and it is a good honest table. It has likely lost a bit of height from the feet over time but it still displays very well. It has been cleaned and given a gentle polish and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
