Description

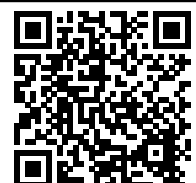

An attractive early 20th century antique oak hall stand with seat. The antique oak hall stand has a central bevelled mirror with a small shelf below. There are four cast iron hooks for coats and hats. To the base is a useful seat with a hinged lid. The lid opens to reveal a spacious interior. There are umbrella or stick stands to either side of the seat complete with metal drip trays. A good quality example with attractive colour and patina throughout. Item Ref; M-3190 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 193cm / Width – 100cm / Depth – 36cm / Seat Height – 48cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including some age-related marks to the seat (pictured). The mirror remains intact with no apparent cracks or breaks. The antique oak hall stand remains structurally solid and sound. A good quality example. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
