Description

Late C19th /early C20th carved walnut rectangular stool of early C18th George II period design. Bold cabriole legs with carved c-scroll and acanthus-wrapped knees raised on carved 'hairy paw' claw feet. The return corners of the knees with a carved rosette motif. A faithful copy of an important early Georgian period stool with a good period-style colour and patina to the walnut. The upholstered seat top covered with a clean period-style floral crewel-work type fabric, with close-nailed studded trim. Could be reupholstered at cost price with client's choice of fabric.
