Description

Striking steeple shaped mahogany double fusee bracket clock signed Christie of Perth. . Features such as the carving around the feet and long the top, red fret sound panels and solid wooden ring handles to the side make this clock very attractive. There is some small repair (shown in photo) however this doesn't affect the look or use of this clock. This superb clock has quality flame mahogany veneers and a painted dial is in full working order and complete with key. Internal Reference: SAI2477
