Description

Gerald Coulson has been painting professionally for over 30 years and has a reputation that is second to none. Entirely self taught, he developed his technique to such a high standard that his work was published as fine art prints, enabling him to begin a full time painting career in 1969. Since that time his work, covering many different subjects, has been published and marketed worldwide as both open and limited edition prints. Gerald has had many one-man shows both in the UK and the USA and his work has been extensively exhibited throughout the world. Whatever the subject he paints, whether aviation, landscape or portrait, his unique ability to capture the realism and 'mood' of the scene is unsurpassed, making him one of the most widely collected and highly regarded artists in the world today. This lovely example is a limited edition fine print under glass, and depicts Harvest Time, having been tastefully mounted in a mahogany frame with dark grey 23/4 Inch bevel cut card border. The Condition is Very Good indeed generally and has been well preserved by the protective glass covering.
