Description

A beautiful early 20th century antique English style oak cupboard. The decorative top sits above a single door, which opens to reveal a neat storage space with shelving to one side. To either side are decorative panels, flanked by turned and carved balusters. This sits above an arrangement of two drawers, each with decorative detail and neat wooden handles. The right hand drawer is a green fabric lined cutlery drawer. To the base are two decorative single panelled blind cupboard doors. These each open to reveal a single fitted shelf and a spacious interior. Raised on block feet with panelled sides. Also, it has decorative carved features throughout. There is a maker's mark to the inside of the left hand drawer 'James Phillips Sons Ltd. Union Street Bristol'. Item Ref; M-2183 .
