Description

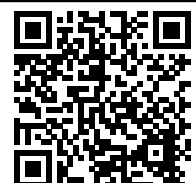

A proper statement. The Art Deco diamond ring features four rows of nine high white and bright eight-cut diamonds (36 stones total), with curved step down shoulders – the shaped and width of which echo the centre of the ring. On a flat platinum shank which narrows toward the base. At over 13.5 grams this not only looks impressively substantial on the finger, but feels it too. Accompanied by an independent jewellery report by IGR (#30309808). Cut – Eight-cuts. Colour – F to H. Clarity – VS1 to VS2. Carat – Approximately 0.75 carat. Circa – 1935. Size – N (UK) or 6.5 (US). Complimentary sizing is available, can go up or down. Weight – 13.6 grams. Measurements – The ring is 18.6mm from outer edge to outer edge, 13.5mm at the widest point and sits 7.3mm from the finger. Metal – 18k rose gold. The diamonds are set in platinum. Tested.
