A beautiful and elegant Sheraton style antique console / server table in mahogany. This was made in England, it dates from around the 1900-1920 period. It is very well made, with a beautiful bow front design and fine carving on the corners. The drawers have green felt lining and fine hand cut dovetailed joints. This has beautiful original brass handles, with tapered legs terminating in wide spade feet. We have recently had this re-polished, the condition is excellent for its age.
