Description

This is a near pair of antique hip baths. An English, tin over steel bath as planter or jardiniere, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1900. Charming antique baths ideal for flower arrangements. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in original weathered order. Tin over steel bodies, with generous interior and flat bottom. Remnants of original paint adorn the interiors of each bath. Both stood upon a tall cylinder foot, the bottom could be easily drilled for flower drainage. This is a charming near pair of antique hip baths. A wonderful opportunity to secure two large planters for an upcoming flower show or themed arrangement. Delivered polished and ready to use.
