Description

A good quality rosewood Document Box. The exterior is finished in highly polished figured rosewood with tulip wood borders and brass reinforced edging. Recessed brass carry handles to each end and a round brass cartouche with an armorial symbol within, on the lid. There is also a working Bramah lock and key. The lid opens to reveal the open storage area within. There are decorative brass edges to all the interior surfaces and the brass hinge bears a spring loaded mechanism for keeping the lid open. The storage area inside is entirely lined in navy blue leather, with six further paper storage spaces in the lid. Dated: c. 1850-60

Internal Ref: 1144/2021/QSA
