Description

A top quality heavy English solid sterling silver wine taster. It is hallmarked for London 1966 with the makers marks being those of Tessiers of New bond street - a very highly regarded firm. It has been beautifully made having a cast handle to the form of two snakes and embossed grape vine bowl. It is in superb condition being free from dings splits and repairs. It is nice and clean inside. It measures approx. 4.25 inches (10.8cms) wide including the handle by 3.25 inches (8cms) excluding it by 1 inch (2.6cms) tall and weighs an impressive 104 grams. A top quality piece.
