Description

Absolutely spectacular wooden Bauhaus Art Deco mantel clock manufactured by Pfeilkreuz Junghans Germany in the 1930's . The case has a superb cascaded architectural design with pronounced chrome features. The dial is cleverly mounted to the base and has a beautiful bold chrome border, hands and dotted 'numerals'. The veneer is a stunning striped calamander. We've had this clock fully serviced by qualified horologist so comes to you with movement in fully functioning condition that chimes every half and full hour. It has a deep and distinct coil gong. The clock runs for approximately 8 days on one winding. Comes with winding key. FREE UK MAINLAND DELIVERY.
