Description

A good quality and very decorative oil on canvas painting of a distinguished gentleman with a gold fob chain dating from the 19th Century. It is framed in a good quality period birds eye maple frame with a gilt slip. The painting is in good original condition. There are signs of age, some surface marks and a couple of old repairs but overall it displays well. There are signs of age and use around the frame, particularly a small chip on one corner of the gilt slip and some other minor splits and losses but nothing detrimental. The painting has been lightly cleaned and is ready to hang. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
