Description

A collection of 10 antique walking canes with an Edwardian cast iron and solid brass stand. The canes comprise seven malacca shafted silver topped sticks with a single ebony shafted example together with a birds head horn handled stick and a briar shafted stick with a gold plated pommel.. All have good ferrules. The largest stick is a military marching cane engraved on the substantial pommel 'The Kings Own'. The photographs show those with hallmarks. Ideal in a large hall or for a film set. The largest measures 96cm long and the shortest 80cm
