Description

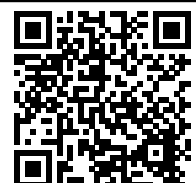

A charming antique ash and elm smoker's bow chair. The back and arms are raised on attractively shaped spindles. The elm seat is also raised on thick turned legs, with a shaped and turned double 'H' stretcher support. In addition, G.R.V is stamped to the back (pictured) along with a maker's mark. This means that this item was inventoried in the reign of King George V, and belonged to a public building of significance. Item Ref; M-2303 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 80.5cm / Width – 63.5cm / Depth – 58cm / Seat Height - 46cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including minor losses to the rear right leg. Of sturdy construction. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
