Description

A magnificent antique eighteenth century Dutch mahogany demi-lune side cabinet dating from circa 1790. It has a beautifully figured top with dentil cornice over an oak lined single frieze drawer with fancy brass escutcheon and drop handle which locks and comes with a key. Below the drawer are a pair of sliding tambour doors with brass knobs and fancy brass escutcheons. The tambour doors slide open to reveal the interior with oak shelves. It is raised on elegant tapered shaped block feet. A fine example, in good condition with beautifully warm colour to the well figured mahogany. Construction/Wood: Mahogany / Oak lined Condition Report: Beautiful patina to the mahogany, solid and sturdy in good condition, doors and drawer run smoothly. Top drawer locks and comes with key. Dimensions: Depth: 41cm Width: 75cm Height: 83cm Drawer Internal: 36cm wide x 31cm deep x 9cm high
