Description

Victorian walnut wine table This Victorian walnut wine table was made circa 1870. The burr walnut circular top with the attractive shaped frieze under. The table stands on a tapering barley twist column (to turn this is a very complicated feat, and something only a top craftsman could do) that joins the 3 carved cabriole legs under. A table like this can be used for many uses around your home, especially as a wine and lamp table. Measurements 45cms diameter 17 3/4ins 72cms high 28 14ins All dimensions are approximate.
