A truly stunning piece, in sublime condition, these double wingback sofas almost never come up for sale, this is a mid Victorian example with original green Howard & Son's floral ticking fabric, there were three types of fabric originally used at the factory, the H&S monogram we all know and love, then two versions of this floral ticking, the green and a red. The inside back leg is fully stamped Howard & Son's Berners Street and with the serial number 7854 3105, you also have the original Howard shop paper label on the oversized stretched on the base. This sofa has a curved front edge which I have never seen before, it is finished off with a row of Chesterfield tufted buttons.
