Description

This large piece has a beautifully detailed and crisp engraving of the iconic Willow Pattern scene surrounded with a traditional dental and beaded edge. Likely converted to a pendant from a traditional Victorian "sweetheart" brooch. Fully hallmarked for Birmingham sterling silver 1879. The pendant is in very good antique condition, there is just a little damage to the edges of the ball decorations, though this is not obvious when the piece is worn. Size: The pendant measures 3.5cm across and the total drop is 4.8cm (just under two inches). Weight: 7.3g. FREE INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING!
