Description

A prime example of a burr walnut brass bound writing slope. The burr walnut has a really eye catching attractive grain to the wood. The slope is brass bounded around the edging with an original brass plaque on the centre lid. The plaque is dated to Victorian 1889. The interior comprises of it's original black leather with two separate writing slope sections. This slope does contain secret drawers which is activated by pushing up one of the divisions. A super example. Materials; Burr walnut and brass Age; 1889 Size; Length; 35cm Width; 23.5cm Height; 18cm Reference Number; 6967
