Description

Country House Elm & Ash Antique Windsor Chair This lovely Early 19th Century Georgian Country House Elm & Ash Antique Windsor Chair dates from ca. 1830 and is full of beautiful charm and character. It has a shaped back with turned upright supports and back splat. The chair arms are wonderfully worn to a nice smooth feel and they have very unusual honey comb turned upright supports. This wonderful period antique chair has a beautifully figured shaped seat, turned legs and cross stretcher for added stability. It has aged to a warm golden shade with a striking grain, good patina, is in very good condition and has been beautifully cleaned using a traditional form of furniture wax finishing.
