Description

Rare Victorian glass stamp wetter, silver mounts hallmarked London 1889 maker mark DL. Typical design modelled on a whetstone grindstone, with the unusual feature of a crank handle. In very good sound condition with no damage or repair, noting small nibbles and thin shallow chips on the trough spindle cut outs, light dings to the silver. A large impressive example to add mystery and function to any desktop. Trough length 3,1/8" or 78mm, drum diameter 2,5/16" or 60mm gross weight 286 grams.
