Description

This is a large antique country house preserve pan. An English, bronze jam or cooking pot, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800. Of superior proportion for the larger batch. Displays a desirable aged patina throughout. Naturally weathered bronze to the exterior with muted golden hues. More polished interior dazzles with bright highlights. Dressed with a pair of handles, decorated with turned detail on serpentine mounts. This is a delightfully large antique preserve pan, offering country house proportion for those looking to cook up larger batches. Delivered polished and ready to enjoy.
