Description

This is a great size and nice quality late 19th century pitch pine farmhouse dining table. The patina to the top from years of use is stunning and gives the piece a superb look that would fit well in a number of interiors. Its a table with plenty of character that you can use without fear of causing irreparable damage. The legs are very thick and sturdy again making this a great everyday table for a living kitchen. The top also lifts off the base to make moving it around much easier. Height 77cm Length 271cm Depth 87cm Height to lower rail 62cm Price includes UK mainland delivery
