Description

An impressive and finely carved and polished granite Bust of an Egyptian Noblewoman After the Antique, wearing a chest length striated wig, her eyebrows carved in high relief with finely detailed eyes and extended cosmetic / kohl lines. She appears to be faintly smiling. Mounted on a museum quality patinated and weighted metal stand. This wonderful looking sculptural object in the style of the Middle/New Kingdom is an imposing large scale bust and would make a perfect statement, stand-alone piece. 62cm high in total, the bust itself measures 26cm.
