Description

A beautifully executed Sussex landscape oil on canvas. Rolling downland with hay stacks in the background reaching out to the horizon. The foreground is set around a smallholding with workers tending the land and their live stock. The stubborn pig refusing to leave his sty is just wonderful. A good decorative painting that wouldn't be out of place hanging in the home of The Bloomsbury Group, Charleston in Sussex. Signed and dated 1922. In its original oak frame. Aperture 75cm x 62cm
