Description

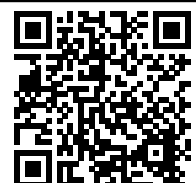

An antique Victorian sterling silver gilt vinaigrette which is rectangular in shape with attractive wavy edges, pretty patterned detailing to the front and back of the body and resting on a flat base. The pierced grille is particularly fine with flower, leaf and swirl detailing and the quality and condition is excellent. There is an added shield cartouche on the front of the body and the interior of the vinaigrette is still nicely gilded. This silver gilt vinaigrette would make an interesting addition to a collection. It weighs 30 grams. Height: 1.00 cms (0.4") Length: 4.30 cms (1.7") Width: 2.90 cms (1.1") It was hallmarked in Birmingham for 1838 by John Tongue and it remains in excellent condition. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this vinaigrette.
