Description

Antique silver Omega pocket watch, 1912. The watch has a stem-winding movement, identified as by Omega, which is working nicely. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside the two covers for London (import mark), 1912 with an importer's mark SA for Selling Agency (watch importers) and also the early Omega logo. The case has general light surface marks, a small knock to the bezel and some fairly gentle unevenness to the engine turned case back. The glass lens is in good condition, just a little knock next to the mark on the bezel. The dial is signed with the Omega logo, and it has outer minute markers with red numerals. There is a short hairline underneath the subsidiary seconds dial and also a tiny chip near to the Omega logo. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
