Description

Unusually small, yet in original size, this lovely 400 year old weaving hails from Flanders in Belgium and depicts a group of hunters in the mid ground while ladies of leisure relax in the foreground. An abundance of trees, leaves and grass in varying shades of yellow/green and a broad border filled with figures- servants bearing fruit and playing music. A beautiful tapestry that while restored is in generally excellent condition and because of the small size, is much easier to place at home.
