Description

This highly decorative large pottery jardiniere has four bold moulded panels of flowers formed into wreaths. They are painted in natural colours set onto a turquoise blue ground with a geometric moulded design highlighted with bands of royal blue. The rim has an incised pattern and the interior has a mottled blue and cream glaze. On the underside, there are factory marks. This wonderful piece is complete with its original carved Chinese style wooden stand which compliments this useful piece. (two very minor small chips to the rim) Circa 1880
