Description

A Single Original Antique Regency Carver Chair. A lovely addition to any period property. We bring to you this excellent condition Regency solid Mahogany scroll arm carver chair made around C1820. This rare chair features a moulded and flame grain veneered head rail over a shaped splat with central turned paterae. The chair has shepherds crock scrolled arm supports on shaped side rails which finishes to sabre front legs. The chairs original drop in seat pad unusually has antique red velvet material in surprisingly really good clean condition, which is the reason we have not reupholstered. The inner horse hair padding is in good condition and the chair is comfortable to sit on. The chair is solid with no loose joints or wobbles. This charming chair is in a lovely original condition which we have just enhanced by carefully waxing this item to preserve and give a natural sheen. Please note; This chair is in a lovely condition for its age as shown by the photographs, however being an antique of this age there may be blemishes here and there which we feel adds to its charm and character. The chair has signs of historic wood worm to the back rail and the front le...
