Description

A fantastic and rare arts and crafts/art nouveau dressing chest in walnut by Maple and Co. Of superb construction in solid walnut with oak drawer linings. With beautiful design features redolent of the period. The dressing mirror is fitted with a stepped pagoda top and the angle of tilt can be adjusted. The main body of the chest is of sarcophagus shape. There is an arrangement of 3 long graduated drawers to the base and 2 small jewellery drawers within the super-structure. Fitted throughout with beautiful solid copper art nouveau period hardware. Sympathetically repolished in our workshops and now offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 99cms Depth 55cms Height 158cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By the 1880s they were the largest furniture store in the world, exported their fine furniture to every continent. Maples manufactured their l...
