SoldItem Reference: SA858139*Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Description

An antique George III sterling silver cream jug made by Paul Storr which has been designed in the helmet shaped style with a square pedestal foot, part fluted detailing to the body with gadroon decoration and a long reeded handle. The interior has been nicely gilded and the overall quality and condition is superb as one would expect from Paul Storr. This silver jug would make a desirable addition to a collection. There is a crest on the front of the body and the armorials are those of Sir Charles Warre Malet, 1st Baronet of Wilbury House, Wiltshire, 1752-1815. Height (to top of handle): 14.2 cms (5.6") Length (from spout to back of handle): 13.8 cms (5.4") Width: 8.5 cms (3.3") Weight: 10.5 troy ounces (328 grams) It was hallmarked in London for 1798 by Paul Storr and it remains in excellent condition. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this cream jug.
