Description

This is a good quality hard paste porcelain allegorical figure representing winter dating from the late 19th century. The continental piece is probably from a factory such as Meissen made around 1890. The putti is modelled sat holding a brazier trying to keep warm in a fur cape. This is a well modelled example and is nicely coloured with hand painted detail and gilding. The figure measures 14 cms high 8 cms wide by 5 cms deep. UK insured delivery is £12
