Description

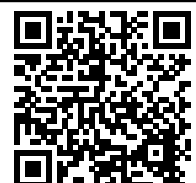

This is an antique dressing table mirror. An English, satinwood vanity, platform or toilet mirror, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. Superb elegance, set to enhance any room. Displays a desirable aged patina and good order throughout. Striking satinwood shows superior grain interest. Rich, consistent amber hues beneath a waxed polish finish. Broad frame hosts pleasingly rounded top corners. Inset, the generous mirror plate shows desirable foxing and a bright reflection. Mirror articulates upon dashing serpentine supports, finished with turned finials. Deep, oblique base with shield form to front, standing upon shaped bracket feet. This is a superb antique dressing table mirror, with undeniable elegance and inviting finish. Exuding quality of materials and craftsmanship. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to enjoy.
