Description

This is a very attractive 19th century French overmantel mirror with gilt decoration. The frame is timber with gesso covered in original gilt decoration that has worn beautifully over the years to show a lovely red colour coming through which really sets the piece off. The mirror plate is totally original and has an amazing sparkle to it with a few areas of foxing as well. Overall condition is very good with no major faults. Great size and will add a lot to a room.
