Description

A charming antique German campaign cocktail shaker made from silver plate dating to the Art Deco era, c.1930. The set comes complete with its original leather case in good condition. The silver plated case opens to reveal the inside of the top part of the cocktail shaker with an integral lemon squeezer. This comes out and the underside reveals a removable top which houses three graduated drinking cups, lavishly gilded on the interior. The bottom of the case becomes the bottom of the cocktail shaker. A most unusual travel set in excellent condition. The case has the top diameter measuring 3 1/2" x 5 1/4" tall. The underside of the cocktail shaker reveals the makers mark together with "Germany".
