Description

A truly lovely vintage 14ct gold turquoise & pearl cluster ring featuring a central pearl, surrounded by a six turquoise beads, then a further 12 pearls. Turquoise and pearls always look stunning together as the tranquil sea blue of the turquoise play against the creaminess of the pearls. The higher almost bombe like setting is typical of the 1960s giving this piece of jewellery a cool vintage look. Pearls can work well with day or evening wear and the turquoise provides a fun pop of colour to brighten up any outfit. A part of our vintage pearl ring collection. SIZE M ½ / US 6 ¼ SPECIFICATIONS Turquoise are 3mm in width each Pearls are 2.5 – 3mm in width each Face diameter. 18mm Weight. 7.05 grams Tests as 14k gold ERA 1960s MARKS 585 stamped to outside of shank CONDITION Very good. This vintage 14ct gold turquoise & pearl cluster ring is in lovely condition. The shank and setting are in excellent order and the gems are held securely in place by the claws. Three of the pearls are showing very slight signs of degradation which happens over time, however bearing in mind the age of the ring, in general they are in very good condition and this is barely noticeable t...
