Description

A good antique bench dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It has a solid oak seat set on two shaped end supports. It has likely been used outside at some point in its life because the wood has weathered and bleached to a pleasant pale colour. A good height for using at a table or in a hallway. It is in good condition and it is strong and sturdy. There are some light marks and general signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. There are some signs of historic worm which has all been treated as a precaution and hasn't affected the piece structurally or aesthetically. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
