Description

An excellent Arts and Crafts period display cabinet by Shapland and Petter of Barnstaple. Of excellent construction in solid mahogany and attractive mahogany "plum pudding" veneers. The central glazed section with a single opening bow fronted glass door. Fitted with a charming silvered lock plate and opening to access a shelved interior lined in its original fabric. The door is lockable (key supplied) and the lock is stamped "S P & B". The glazed section is flanked by turned columns. Beneath is a central recess flanked but rows of turned balustrades. To the top of the cabinet is an up-stand decorated with stylish inlaid floral panels redolent of the period. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops this stunning cabinet is offered for sale in excellent original condition. Dimensions: Width 115cms Depth 50cms Height 196cms The Shapland and Petter factory was established by cabinetmaker Henry Shapland (1823 – 1909), following a trip to America in 1848. While there, he saw an ingenious new machine which he realised could be used for cabinetmaking. Upon his return to Barnstaple, he reproduced the machine from notes he'd made and set up business in a mill. He later met Henry Pette...
