Item Reference: SA860100

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A lovely 19th century Chinese embroidered silk panel. It is square in shape with tassels at each corner. The background is cream silk, embroidered with flowers and birds with a central dragon. Although slightly faded due to its age, it still retains its soft colours. A delicate and beautifully embroidered textile. It measures 74cm square. In very good condition, no holes or tears.
