Description

A good quality three-tier mahogany whatnot dating from the early 19th century. It has elegant turned supports with turned finials and it stands on small brass castors. It is in good condition for its age and is a good quality piece with lovely rich timbers. There are signs of age and use, some marks and light scratches on the surfaces and a couple of the finials are chipped but there are no major damages and it has a nice patina. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
