Description

A fine set of 12 Victorian silver napkin rings in their original fitted velvet and satin lined leather case with pretty engraved running frieze of leaves within scalloped borders and an engraved cartouche with the initials CH / HC. Hallmarked for London 1893, maker Charles Dew Miller (Miller Brothers). They measure between 2.6 and 2.8cm wide and 4.6cm diameter. They are a very good gauge and weigh 365g / 11.7ozt combined silver weight and 585g full weight in case. In excellent condition. The case has minor scuffing to the outside. It does close on the catch but not completely flush.
